Forecast For Scotland
Issued by Met Office Aberdeen
at 0400 on Saturday 09 Oct 2021

++ Valid for broadcast between 0600 and 1800

Headline:
Cloudy day with occasional rain. Clearing later in northwest.

Today:
A dull, cloudy day with occasional rain, turning heavier at times during the morning. Best chance of early limited brightness around the Moray Coast. Dry and bright conditions gradually feeding across the Highlands, Western Isles and Orkney during the afternoon.

Tonight:
Cloud and patchy rain in the east and south at first clearing into the North Sea by midnight. Otherwise mainly dry with broken cloud and light westerly breezes.

Sunday:
Settled for the majority with bright and sunny spells with most in south and east avoiding the scattered showers. Across the Northern Isles showers more frequent and occasionally turning heavy.

Outlook for Monday to Wednesday:
Monday cloudy with rain in north, limited brighter spells, largely dry in south.
Tuesday cloudy with patchy rain, then sunshine, showers feeding from north later.
Wednesday mainly dry, occasionally bright.

(C) Crown Copyright 2021. Published by the Met Office.